

Local Focus Pack

Local studies are now firmly established as part of the National Curriculum. Gathering sources for use both in and out of the classroom can be time consuming. Shropshire Archives can help by providing teachers working within Shropshire and Telford & Wrekin with packs of specially selected source material focusing on their particular locality and suitable for use with children at Key Stages 1 and 2. Focus Packs can also be adapted for use by secondary schools and colleges.

As all Focus Packs are tailored to individual schools, the contents will vary according to the availability of sources for that area but usually, your pack will include examples of the following:

- Directories
- Census
- Parish Registers
- Newspapers
- School Returns
- County Maps
- Ordnance Survey Maps
- Field-name Maps
- Photographs
- Sale Particulars

Each pack also includes a set of general introductory notes relating to the sources provided.

The cost of a Focus Pack is £35.00 (plus p&p dependant upon size of pack). If you would like to order one, please complete and return the form overleaf. Packs usually take up to 20 working days to supply, but it may be longer when demand is high. Please order well in advance, if possible.
